

For Immediate Release
May 24, 2010

Contact: Amy Shuler Goodwin
304-549-2814

SUMMERSVILLE NATIVE JOINS BUCCI BAILEY & JAVINS, LC

Charleston, W.Va.—The law firm of Bucci, Bailey & Javins, LC announced today that Nicholas County native, Brad Dorsey, has joined their Summersville office. Dorsey was raised in Pool, WV and is a graduate of Nicholas County High School, received a B.A.2001 from Bluefield State College and his J.D. from West Virginia University in 2004.

Dorsey has worked with the Nicholas County Prosecutor's Office and served as a law clerk for the Honorable Gary L. Johnson, 28th Judicial Circuit, Summersville, WV.

Dorsey is a member of the West Virginia State Bar, serves as the treasurer for the Nicholas County Bar, and is a member of the West Virginia Association for Justice. Dorsey also is on the board for the Summersville Public Library and the Summersville Regional Medical Center.

Dorsey's area of practice includes, Social Security/Disability, Workers' Compensation, Black Lung/Silicosis/Lung Disease, Personal Injury & Catastrophic Injury, Automobile Accident, Mining Accidents, Logging & Timbering Accidents, Construction Injury and Workplace Injury.

Dorsey currently resides in Summersville with his wife, Melissa, and two daughters.

Bucci Bailey & Javins LC has more than 35 years combined experience representing miners, truck drivers, loggers, construction workers and injury victims throughout West Virginia. Bucci, Bailey & Javins LC has represented clients in some of the state's most serious accidents including Sago, Aracoma, Ghent and Willow Island.

The law firm has offices in Charleston, Logan and Summersville, West Virginia.